we had zero weather. I suppose you had similar chills, too.

Sunday morning I went to Peckville for the day. Mrs Irving Tingley had a birthday dinner in honor of Miss Geary and invited me. The dinner was at two, so I called on the Shenners before going to the Tingleys. The Tingley twin boys are naturally just adorable - ten months old, fat and chubby, good-natured active. They ate dinner with us, one in a high chair; the other in a swing. Each
